What is your series about?

Miles Away is about a teenager named Miles who moves from Canada to California after his parents pass away in a car crash. He moves in with his older cousin Drew, who is an instructor at a performing arts school full of famous teen actors, singers, and dancers. Miles is very closed-off and doesn't want to get close to other people, but soon the most popular freshman, Naomi, starts to break down his walls and make him realize he can't hide forever.
